The Iron Clay Feet Of Daniel 2 - Revelation Timeline Decoded

This Revelation Timeline Decoded Bible study focuses on the iron-clay feet of the statue in Daniel 2.

Summary: Islam and the Muslims represent the clay of the iron clay feet of the statue in Daniel 2. The iron, the Roman Catholic Church, helped Mohammed write the Qur'an and be revered as the prophet of Islam. Mohammed's wife and cousin were Catholics who had great influence on him.

The Roman Catholic Church did this to use Muslims to kill Christians and Jews, to protect Catholics, and to capture Jerusalem. But the Muslims kept Jerusalem for themselves and sought to conquer more land, so they don't mix well, and they have battled during the Crusades.

Daniel 2 describes a statue with iron legs, which represents the Roman Empire.

Satan used the Roman Empire to try to wipe out the early church, killing millions of saints. The Lord exacted vengeance against it by causing the Roman Empire to collapse from within, from civil wars and excessive taxation; and from without, when the Lord sent army after army against it.

The last Roman Emperor was removed in 476 AD, and Satan responded by empowering the Roman Catholic Church to rise to power in their place.

The Popes took the title of the Roman Emperors, Pontifex Maximus, as the head of the church and state, healing the deadly head wound. The Roman Catholic Church didn't have an army, so they used other people groups, the clay of Daniel 2, to wage war for them.

The statue has feet made of iron/clay, which tells us that the Roman beast would mingle with other people groups, to battle against the kingdom of Christ.

Daniel 2:41-43 "the feet and toes, partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; yet the strength of the iron shall be in it. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay."

The Bible is its own dictionary, so we need not speculate about the meanings.

The Strong's Hebrew word for both "mixed" and "mingle" is 6151 "arab".

The word 'arab' in Daniel 41, 43 is not found anywhere else; because the passage in Daniel was originally written in Aramaic, which is very closely related to Hebrew.

But when we do a word study, we can see that the Aramaic 6151 'arab' corresponds to Hebrew words that describe the mixing of the Arab race.

Aramaic 6151 arab corresponds to Hebrew 6148 arab – is a primative root, meaning 'to braid, to intermix'

Hebrew 6150 arab is a primitive root identical with 6148.

Hebrew 6152 arab is derived from 6150, and it signifies the land of Arabia.

Hebrew 6154 ereb is derived from 6148, and signifies a 'web of cloth', also a mixture (or mongrel race), and especially the people of Arabia, a 'mingled people' or 'mixed multitude*'.*

Hebrew 6163 arabee is derived from 6152, and signifies 'an Arab or inhabitant of Arabia'.

Abraham mingled with the Egyptian handmaiden Hagar to produce the Arab race through the twelve tribes of Ishmael.

This fulfilled the Father's promise to Hagar that they would become a great nation. The Israelites were the clay in the Father's hands, the Ishmaelites were the miry clay that came from Abraham's seed.

Smith's Bible Dictionary also states that "Arab" and "mixed" are related terms and ideas:

Arabia cannot be held to have a more extended signification than the Hebrew equivalents in the Old Testament. (a) 'erb' (Exo 12:38; Neh 13:3) and 'erb' (1Ki 10:15; Jer 25:20, 50:37; Eze 30:5), rendered in the AV "a mixed multitude" (Exo 12:38), here followed by 'rb', 'the mixed multitude,' kings of 'Arabia' so in Vulgate, and in Hebrew in corresponding passage in 2Ch 9:14, and (in the last two instances) 'the mingled people,' have been thought to signify the Arabs.

We can clearly see the relationship of these words, which are pointing to the mixed race of the Arabs. You can read more about this @ http://www.christadelphianbooks.org/agora/art_less/a29.html

The iron of the Roman Popes mixed with an unlikely group of people, the Arabs; to use them as their army, to carry out their agenda.

- The Roman Catholic Church helped Mohammed become the leader of the Arabs.
- They helped him write the Qur'an, with beliefs that are very similar to Catholicism.
- They financed the Arabs to kill Jews and Christians, and to capture Jerusalem.

The clay represents the Arabs, who became the great Ottoman Empire, who worked with the Roman Catholic Church, to control the lands previously held by the Roman Empire.

They both killed Christians and Jews, but they have also warred with each over possession of Jerusalem and other territories, which led to the Crusades where they fought against each other, as they don't mix well.
